The High Holy Days are fast approaching and Temple Isaiah is looking forward to celebrating the New Year with you. This time of year is when we can come together as a community and share in each other's life and share in the life of the Jewish people--past, present, and future.

Enclosed you will find a High Holy Day brochure with an explanation of the services, as well as a print-out of the schedule to keep close at hand. All services for the High Holy Days will be held at Royce Hall/UCLA.

Rosh Hashanah (Erev/1st day)	Sept. 8th/9th	Royce Hall/UCLA
Rosh Hashanah (2nd day)	Sept. 10th	Temple Isaiah (no tickets required)
Yom Kippur (all services)	Sept. 17th/18th	Royce Hall/UCLA

Once again, Temple Isaiah is excited to announce our “Family Services” for Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur. These services have been created for families with children in grades 3-6. You will need to select which service you would like to attend on the ticket order form included on the back of this mailing.

There will be childcare for children aged 2-7 for both the Family Service and the Morning Service on both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. There is no charge for childcare, but due to limited space we require that children be signed up in advance. The sign-up form is also included in this mailing.

Ticket orders placed after August 20th, 2010 will be held for pick-up at the Temple Isaiah office.

Please call Leslie Shepherd in the Temple office at (310) 277-2772 if you have any questions about filling out this form.
