PURIM SILENT AUCTION RULES

TO BID

- Clearly write your first and last name, phone number, and your bid (which must be higher than the previous bid by the minimum bid increase).
- If we cannot read your handwriting, your bid cannot be accepted.
- Any bids written in after 1:00pm on Sunday, March 9 will not be accepted.

WINNERS

- Winners must present a valid credit card (MC or VISA), cash, or a check payable to Temple Isaiah to pay for and collect their items.
- Check-out will start at 1:00pm on Sunday, March 9.
- If you use “BUY IT NOW” prior to the auction’s end, we will accept payment immediately and you can take your item.

PICK UP YOUR ITEM

- All items must be paid for and picked up no later than 12:00 noon on Wednesday, March 12.
- Any items not paid for and picked up by the deadline WILL BE AWARDED TO THE NEXT HIGHEST BIDDER.

PURIM SILENT AUCTION TERMS & CONDITIONS

The Purim Auction Committee has made every effort to describe the items as accurately as possible, thus ALL SALES ARE FINAL, and the items are sold “AS IS”. Temple Isaiah and the Purim Auction Committee neither warrant nor represent, and shall in no event be responsible for the correctness of the description, genuineness, authorship, provenance, performance by the donor, condition of items, or buyer dissatisfaction for any other reason. There are no refunds or exchanges of items.

The stated value of the auction goods and services are appraisals only and are not warranted for tax purposes. Items purchased are tax deductible to the extent provided by law.

Reservations must be mutually arranged between the successful bidder and donor, unless otherwise specified. We suggest contact be made no later than 30-60 days after the auction.

All auction items must be used within the time period specified. Please check expiration dates and restrictions carefully, as these cannot be extended or altered in any way.
